There will be a Valentine party at The Inn, Ormond, tonight.

E. M. Browning, of Eau Gallie, spent the day in the city.

C. G. Burgoyne is reported as being confined to his room with a case of grip.

Yesterday was celebrated in many cities of the North as the 90th anniversary of Lincoln's birthday.

Two large parties reached Hotel Ormond last week and after spending a couple of days there proceeded to various points south.

S. E. Bullard left with a party of friends on board his launch Kivi this morning for a three weeks' cruise down the coast.

S. T. Bennett was able to return to his duties at the depot today. A bad case of grip kept him laid up for several days.

Mrs. Sadie B. Glenna, M. and Virginia Snyder, Mrs. Margaret A. Snyder, David F. Snyder, Mrs. M. T. Woolwin, Springfield, O., are guests of The Parkinson.

Geo. R. Chamberlain and wife, Miss Elizabeth Chamberlain, H. H. Guernsey, New Haven, Ct., are recent arrivals at The Gables.

Will Visit DeLand.

Wm. Williams, colored, was arrested Sunday night by Marshal Zuber, for riding without a light, and ordered to appear before the mayor Monday morning. As he failed to appear, the marshal hunted him up and found that he was in charge of a wheel chair owned by W. W. Austin.

While riding around yesterday, it is alleged that he picked up a chate-laine bag at the corner of Beach and Bay, which contained $7 and other valuables. The bag was the property of Mrs. Bernard, a stenographer at The Clarendon, and was dropped from her buggy while on the way to the hotel. C. G. Sparks, a driver for C. E. Johnson, testified that he saw the bag drop and also saw Williams pick it up.

Williams was arrested and placed in jail and, not liking the view of the Halifax, he evidently determined to leave. When Marshal Zuber went out to see how his provisions were getting on, he found that the negro had damaged the lock and hinges to such an extent that they will have to be replaced.

Williams was tried before Squire Cox this morning and put under $500 bond for his appearance at the criminal court. Not being able to furnish bond, he was locked up and Sheriff Turner notified to come after him.

Woman's Visual Angle.

"Have you eyes in the back of your head?" asked a country magistrate of a woman, and the woman promptly replied that she had. She was perfectly right. Take any average man and any average woman, question them as to the dress and deportment of the people in any assembly where they were together, and you will find that the woman has seen more than the man, for woman has been compelled to enlarge the angle of her vision and to see all around her hat without shifting an eye.

From an early age instinct tells the girl, and convention seals the instinct, that she must not look directly at the man in the street, therefore the honest woman walks through London looking straight ahead. The direct look at the stranger is forbidden, yet human curiosity compels, so develops and enlarges that angle of vision, for no woman will deliberately blind herself, and therefore by continual exercise those calm conventional eyes that look to the horizon and the infinite have trained themselves to see the world out of the corners obliquely.—London Chronicle.

Be Ready For the Opportunity.

People are apt to think that, though their actual lives are poor and self centered and such as they are half ashamed of, if some great crisis arose they would be able to gather up their halting will and raise themselves to its height. Yes, no doubt. Only life's sternest calls never come in any such fashion. Things don't arrange themselves for us to gather up our feeble will and settle with our souls that we will be heroes. They come hard and sharply, testing not what we have resolved to be, but simply what we are. We have a sort of feeling that it is the opportunity that makes the man. Not so. The opportunity only shows him for what he is, and the spirit of prompt duty, of quick, instinctive loyalty to right under whatever temptation may ever come, may be cultivated and grow to the very capacity for heroism even in life's lowliest place and poorest work.
